CONVENTION NEWS

The 2023 Midyear Convention at the Tempe Mission Palms exceeded expectations. The feedback from attendees was extremely positive . . . from the location to the speakers to the town hall to the delicious food. The breakroom snacks were a big hit! In addition to learning new ideas and renewing our enthusiasm for our profession, a great time was had by all reconnecting with peers!

On that note, you won't want to miss the 2023 Annual Convention! It will be held at the Hilton Garden Inn in beautiful, historic Prescott, Arizona, on September 16-17, 2023. Among the speakers scheduled to present is Kristine Bunch from the Innocence Project. Ms. Bunch was wrongfully convicted and spent 17 years in prison before being exonerated. Today she is an advocate for people exonerated of wrongful convictions.

Please join us for ACRA's annual business meeting luncheon. Elections for the new board of directors for the new term will take place, as well as a vote on a proposed bylaw change regarding voice writers.

Additional details will be posted on the ACRA website as finalized.

CERTIFIED REPORTER BOARD

The Certified Reporter Board is still seeking volunteers to fill vacancies on the Board: one official certified reporter, one freelance certified reporter, and one attorney member licensed to practice in Arizona. Meetings are every month, and attendance may be in person or remote. The application form is online at Board of Certified Reporters \(azcourts.gov\). The next meeting is August 10 at 10 a.m.

Town Hall

Angela Miller, Terry Libretti, and Kassie Kosmal moderated the Town Hall at Midyear. Valuable information was presented regarding digital recording and the steps ACRA is proactively taking to thwart this emerging and growing threat.

Kassie is an official court reporter for Maricopa County Superior Court. She gave an informative presentation on voice writing and answered questions while demonstrating how she does her job every day.

IMPORTANT DATES & UPCOMING EVENTS

ARIZONOTES DEADLINE: August 11, 2023

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Creosote Partners' attempt to get the language into the recently passed bipartisan budget to increase the page rate was unsuccessful this legislative session. This was due in large part to all the new faces as a result of the change in leadership. Our lobbyists are willing to continue to volunteer their time to build the new relationships necessary to get these changes into law.

ACRA NEWS

It is with great regret that we acknowledge receipt of Kim Portik's resignation letter resigning her position as ACRA's executive director. On behalf of the entire board, we thank Kim for her wisdom and patient guidance. Her dedication and commitment to ACRA has been an inspiration to us all.

ACRA has entered into an agreement with Robin Hirth of Southwest Association Management to take over Kim's position. The Board looks forward to working with Robin.
